HOUSE WARMING PLANNED FOR ODD FELLOWS

The Odd Fellows are preparing to have one of the biggest good fellowship meetings that they have ever had in Ada next Thursday night. It will be open session for all Odd Fellows and Rebekahs whether in good standing or not. There will be an interesting program, and addresses by men of state-wide reputation. Besides to make the evening doubly enjoyable, there will be served a delicious luncheon. Everything is free and the function will doubtlessly be largely attended.

Senator Bailey Has Severe Cold.
Washington, Feb. 6.—Senator Bailey is confined to his room by a severe cold, which is giving his throat trouble. It is thought that by reason of this indisposition he will be prevented from speaking on the Lorimer case Wednesday.

Messrs. Albert Amis and Harry Metcalf returned to Okmulgee last evening after a visit with their friends Josiah Martin and family.

ARCHBISHOP RYAN BETTER.

Physicians Believe Prelate Has Chance to Recover.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 6.—Archbishop Ryan, whose death has been momentarily expected during the last week, was noticeably improved today, and for the first time since his illness his physicians are inclined to believe he has a chance to recover. They state, however, that this chance is extremely slim, owing to the state of his heart, which they declare is "practically worn out."

ENGLISH LORD TO WED MILLIONS

INCIDENTALLY WILL WED MISS GOULD TO PERFECT TITLE.

New York, Feb. 6.—England's nobility will be enriched by the addition of several more millions of American dollars when Miss Vivien Gould, aged 18, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Jay Gould, becomes the wife of Lord Decies, a middle-aged English nobleman here Tuesday afternoon. The wedding, which will be the most important social event of the season will take place at 4 p. m. in St. Bartholomew's church, and that fashionable edifice will be crowded to the doors by the social elect of this country and many members of English nobility.

No expense has been spared in making the arrangement, and it will, undoubtedly be the most lavish affair of this kind that New York society has ever witnessed, with the exception perhaps of the wedding of Miss Majorie Gould, the bride's elder sister, which took place 10 months ago, and which set a new high water mark for expenditure in gifts and preparations. Mr. Drexel's gift alone reached the enormous total of $1,000,000, and it is believed her younger sister's will amount to almost as much.

DREXEL BEGINS AT BOTTOM.

Husband of Majorie Gould Starts as Messenger at Lowest Run of Financial Ladder.

New York, Feb. 6.—Anthony J. Drexel, who married Miss Majorie Gould went to work today. He got a job as messenger with a Stock Exchange firm and began his duties at the stroke of nine this morning. With a view of learning the business from A to Z he determined to start at the lowest rung of the ladder.

Young Drexel worked hard on his first day and tramped through the financial district in the cold until 4:30 o'clock this afternoon. He had twenty minutes for lunch. Tomorrow his sister-in-law Vivien Gould, will wed, but he will work half a day nevertheless, quitting just in time to dress for the ceremonies. He journeyed home tonight on a crowded "L" train.

COUNTRY IS BEING HURT BY EXTENDED DROUGHT

Washington, Feb. 6.—Drought still remains unbroken in Texas, portions of Oklahoma and surrounding states are becoming very dry and rain is needed over most of Florida, according to the weather bureau's summary of the weather conditions for January. The long drought in California has been broken. There was little snow covering in the winter wheat districts and the general absence of moisture and frequent freezing and thawing, it is believed was injurious to wheat.

STATE OFFICIALS ANXIOUS FOR CAPITAL DECISION

SUPREME COURT WILL SETTLE MATTER OF CAPITAL LOCATION THURSDAY.

All Will Be Better Satisfied When the Long Drawn Out Question Is Finally Settled.

Oklahoma City, Feb. 7.—The announcement that the supreme court will announce its decision in the capital case next Thursday was heralded by the different state officers with glee. No one is more anxious to learn the fate of the capital removal bill than they. At present they feel that all arrangements are temporary and for that reason do not take the interest in their work that they otherwise would. There is considerable speculation among the officers as to the nature of the court's decision.

FURNITURE ON EASY PAYMENTS SMITH'S 203-5 W MAIN ST.

Notice.

The Woman's Christian Board of Missions will meet Wednesday, Feb. 8th, at 3 p. m., with Mrs. C. A. Galbraith. MRS. WYMORE, Pres.

SOONERS HAVE HARD LUCK

LOSE THREE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT GAMES OF THE SEASON.

Norman, Feb. 7.—The Sooner basketball team has just returned from its northern trip during which games were played with Southwestern College of Winfield, Friends University of Wichita and Oklahoma Baptist University of Blackwell. The State University five lost all three of its matches. The failure of the team to make a better showing was in great measure due to the absence of Captain Diamond, a veteran leather cager and the mainstay of the team. At the last moment he was unable to make the trip and the team departed under the most unpropitious conditions for that reason. Southwestern College annexed the laurels by a 32 to 34 score. The Kansas were speedy and trained to the minute. They played a snappy game with a home crowd and their own court in their favor. Friends University nosed out a win by two points, the score board showing a 26 to 24 score. It was an interesting battle and was witnessed by a big crowd of enthusiastic Wichita fans. The last game was with the classy Blackwell Baptist College aggregation which defeated the Sooners at Norman by one point recently. The Preachers registered a 26 to 12 score this time.

Sale of Indian Lands Ends.
McAlester, Ok., Feb. 6.—The sale of unallotted Indian lands, in progress here the past week, closed today. Two thousand three hundred tracts were offered and 663 or 28 per cent were sold. The acreage sold was the largest in any county where sales have been had, but the lands were cheap, the sales amounting to $750,000.

W. B. JONES ANNOUNCEMENT

Wilmer B. Jones announces in this issue for re-election to the office of City Clerk. Further mention of his candidacy will be made tomorrow.

Attention Home Builders--Opportunity Extraordinary

We will, until the 1st day of March, 1911, offer for sale at ATTRACTIVE PRICES, desirable resident property in either DONAGHEY, NORMAL HEIGHTS or CAPITOL HILL Additions. IF PURCHASER DESIRES, we will give TERMS ON LOTS and will LOAN MONEY TO ASSIST IN BUILDING RESIDENCE.

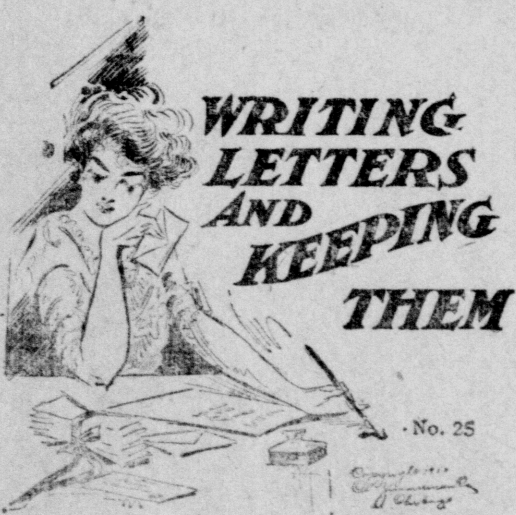

This property is located in the most desirable residence district in the city, where values are steadily advancing, and where values will continue to advance, even though a lull may reach other localities in the city.

IF YOU WANT A HOME call on us at once and let us show you this property. Don't wait until another rise comes when Byrd's Mill Water reaches the city.

You have letters which you treasure and keep. At least some of the letters you write will be kept a lifetime, maybe longer, perhaps read by future generations. Wouldn't you like to have such letters on good stationery? You cannot tell now which letters you write are going to be kept, but the cost of good stationery at our store is so low that there is no extra expense in having every letter you send out such that you need not be ashamed for anyone to keep or show in years to come. ### 10 MEN KILLED IN POWDER EXPLOSION

MICHIGAN POWDER PLANT ACCIDENT TEARS HUMAN BODIES TO PIECES.

Marquette, Mich., Feb. 7.—In one of the most disastrous explosions ever occurring in Upper Michigan, ten men met instant death at the plant of the Pluto Powder company, in the outskirts of Ishpeming, late this afternoon.

The bodies of the dead were blown to pieces. The dead were: Michael O'Connor, aged 50. Robert Askew, aged 25. Edward Woodward, aged 19. George Woodward, aged 17. Thomas Ripper, aged 19. Joseph Ripper, aged 20. Charles Kemp, aged 19.

Justin Jordan, aged 27. George Wallberg, aged 20. Andrew Matson, aged 35. One explosion took place in the gelatine powder house. Every man in this building was blown to pieces.

What caused the explosion will never be known. Gelatine powder is largely composed of nitroglycerin, and it is supposed that the mixture was being stirred in the big crucible within the house when the stuff let go. About 1,000 pounds exploded. Only twenty minutes before the disaster 5,000 pounds of the explosive had been removed, otherwise the havoc would have been much greater. As it was, the plant was little damaged and the shock felt in Ishpeming was hardly perceptible.

Windows at Winthrop, a mile away however, were broken. Only a few fragments of the bodies have yet been recovered.

C. H. Miller of Francis, was here yesterday on his way from Pauls Valley where he had been for the past week.

SWAIN FROM PARIS ELOPES WITH ADA GIRL

There was hurrying to and fro at the southbound Katy this morning. Three young ladies boarded the train rather excitedly, while a well groomed, determined-looking young man swung on the off side of the back coach just about the time the signal for starting was given.

When the meaning of all the flurry and apparent excitement of the girls was ascertained it was found that an elopement was in order. Ben Hale, a prominent young business man of Paris, Tex., was taking with him back to his Texas home Miss Clara Varner of this city. They were of the opinion the surest way to matrimonial bliss for the present at least was to keep the young lady's parents ignorant of the arrangements. They proceeded to Atoka where the ceremony was witnessed by two of the bride's friends, Misses Fay Huddles-ton and Bennie Brandon, who accompanied her that far.

FRISCO ENGINEER KILLED.

Byron Colendar Sticks to Post and Saves His Passengers.

Tulsa, Ok., Feb. 6.—Engineer Byron Colendar was fatally injured and Fireman Taylor Everly seriously hurt when an eastbound Frisco passenger train was wrecked about eight miles west of here this morning. A dynamo which had fallen from a preceding train was responsible for the wreck.

The bravery of Engineer Colendar, who stuck to his post when he could have saved himself by jumping, probably averted a heavy loss of life. Everly was hurt by jumping.

The passengers, many of whom were asleep at the time, were shaken up, but uninjured. The road was blocked until late this afternoon. Colendar lives in Monett and Everly in Sapulpa.

Midnight Ride of Paul Revere.

In American history the most famous of all rides was that of Paul Revere, the young Boston patriot who at a given signal from the belfry of Old North church, Boston, sped away to Lexington to warn Hancock and Adams of the approach of the enemy Revere was considered to be the best horseman in the vicinity of Boston.
 It was assigned to him the task of riding, on a fleet horse, from Boston to New York and Philadelphia to rouse the people to action, following the belligerent move of the British in and about his home city.

When Governor Gage was ordered to arrest Adams and Hancock, and to send them to England for trial, the patriots protected themselves by hiding in Lexington. Their place of concealment was discovered and on the night of April 18, 1775, a body of eight hundred British regulars were sent to arrest them. By midnight the troops were well on their way. Every precaution for secrecy had been taken, but the vigilance of the patriots was too keen to be eluded.

Paul Revere stood by the river, his steed by his side, waiting for the belfry signal. Finally it appeared and a moment later he was galloping through the night towards Lexing-

THERE ARE STILL SOME UNCER- TAINTIES. OF COURSE!

If you knew that by ten insertions of a one-inch ad you could positively sell your property at a fixed price, you'd pay a high advertising rate for those ten insertions—wouldn't you?

It is not such a certainty as that, of course! But, so far as anything can be certain, you may be sure that a reasonable amount of advertising will sell your property—and that the final cost of advertising will be so small as to seem trivial.

ton. At every door, as he dashed along, he shouted the thrilling news that the British were coming. Reaching Lexington he sped straight for the house of Rev. Jonas Clarke, where the two statesmen were asleep.
 The door was guarded by minutemen, who cautioned him against stirring the inmates with his noise.

"Noise," cried Revere, "you'll soon have noise enough, the regulars are coming."

Hancock, at an upper window, knew his voice and invited him in;
 and a few hours later, when the enemy came up, the patriots had quietly proceeded on their way to the congress at Philadelphia.

American history will always view Revere as the "Messenger of the Revolution" for this famous ride. The imagery of the poet Longfellow has thrown around this midnight ride a glamour that will stir the hearts of Americans as long as the nation endures. But Revere was not the only one who rode on that eventful night carrying news of much import. Before he started Dr. Warren had dispatched another rider, William Dawes, by the long road over the Boston Neck.
 Fearful that Dawes would not get through, the doctor commissioned Revere to go by the shorter route across the river. Both riders were able to elude the British, but Dawes did not reach Lexington for half an hour after Revere. No poet has sung the latter's praise, and today hardly anyone knows that Revere had a companion in the same task.

Of late years an effort has been made to disparage much of the picturesque incident of the Revere ride.
 That it was taken, however, is beyond dispute. In Revere's letter to Dr. Belknap, written in 1798, which is still extant, he speaks of the ride.
 Justin Winsor, in writing of the incident, says:

"The ride of Paul Revere has grown to be a household tale in the spirited verse of Longfellow, but as in almost all of that poet's treatment of historical episodes, he has paid little attention to exactness of fact and has widely, and often without poetic necessity, turned the channel of events."

But historians of the present day seem very prone to disparage many of the incidents that have been written down as facts by the historian of the past and the general public are left to decide for themselves and to take their choice as to what and whom to believe.

Revere is described as a fine type of busy, energetic man, who lived a useful life to his 54th year. When he died he was laid to rest in the old Granary burying grounds, Boston, where rest the bodies of Samuel Adams, John Hancock, Robert Treat Paine, Peter Faneuil and the parents of Benjamin Franklin, and on Christ church is a tablet which tells the paserby that:

"The Signal Lanters of Paul Revere Displayed in the Steeple of This church, April 8, 1775, Warned the Country of the March of the British Troops to Lexington and Concord."

SUNFLOWER PHILOSOPHY.

(Aitchison (Kan.) Globe.)

Nearly every woman under 50, who lives near a railroad, pretends to be afraid that some man on a train might wave at her.

When it comes to belonging to the unloved variety, the fat man who originated the complaint hasn't anything on the mule.

Talk to a very stout woman and she is apt to say, "I was a little bit of a thing when I married; did not weight an ounce over 50 pounds."

History may repeat itself occasionally, but with about the same disregard for the text that the average man displays when quoting poetry.

It is all right to go back to the farm if you feel like it, but don't base your ideas of agriculture on life at the country club.

Dividing them into equal parts for convenience, one-half the world is engaged in making excuses and the other half in hearing them.

A girl who counts her face her fortune, kind sir, should go on the stage rather than make a bluff at stenography. The spell of beauty is so often different from the kind Webster advocates.

No Socialist Martyr in Kansas.

With characteristic good sense the president disposes of the case of the editor of the Appeal to Reason, a Kansas Socialistic newspaper, who was convicted of violating the postal laws and sentenced to six months' imprisonment. The defendant has been able for more than two years to pose as a victim of "government hostility to a free press," whereas his offense had nothing to do with the press and any grocery clerk who sent an offensive postal-card might have been proceeded against exactly as he was.
 It is possible that the editor of the newspaper in question was prosecuted for one offense and convicted of another. He was exceedingly violent in his language. He seemed to invite federal attention. The case against him, however, was comparatively trifling, and the president's decision to reduce it to the level of a clothes-line quarrel imposing a fine of $100, is the best disposition that could have been made of it.

So far as the Appeal to Reason of Kansas is concerned, the World wishes it well in every true appeal to reason that it may make. In a free country there cannot be too many sincere appeals to reason, but this particular case could hardly be called an appeal to reason on either side.

By refusing to add dignity to a proceeding which never should have been brought except in recognition of a trifling misdemeanor, Mr. Taft again reveals wisdom and courage which will prove aluable in much more importantv affairs.—New York World.

ERRATIC GENIUS.

Handicaps of Hard Luck Great Minds Have Overcome.

Sentimental readers, and even many critics, are wont to spend a good deal of time lamenting over the ill luck of many of the world's great poets, dramatists, and artists. It shocks them to recall, as Kipling did in that little after dinner speech of his, that perhaps the finest literature we know came from a midnight stabber (Villon), a sheep-stealer (Shakespeare,) a roving tinker (Bunyan), and a dissolute plowman (Burns.)

It is still more gievous, one might say, that frowiness and poverty and squalor should haunt the steps of other geniuses—such a poor Chatterton, who was forced to suicide, or Keats, who died heart-broken by hostile criticism. Think, too, of Byron, sodden with brandy in his last few years; or of Poe, who was so poor that when his wife was dying he was obliged to cover her with his great-coat, because he could not afford a fire, and who himself died halfstarved in Baltimore, the victim of a gang of roughs.—The Munsey.

Woman for City Commissioner.

Spokane, Wash., Feb. 7.—Spokane may have the unique spectacle of a woman sitting in solemn conclave with four business men and passing upon the laws needful for the government of the city under the new form of commission government which was recently adopted. The woman is Mrs. May Arkwright Hutton, one of the most prominent woman's suffragists in the Northwest, who formerly lived in Wallace, Idaho, in the famous Coeur d'Alene mining district. Her husband, a millionaire mine owner, is a large stock-

The reason her candidacy has not been publicly announced as yet is that the women are not certain whether or not she will consent to run for office. Before her departure for Lympla to attend the session of the legislature, when the matter was presented to Mrs. Hutton, she would not consent to become a candidate. However, her supporters seem to feel that she will comply with their wishes if urged sufficiently.

Some of the business men are credited with saying that Mrs. Hutton has more business ability than many of the men who have announced their candidacy thus far, but there seems to be considerable doubt as to whether these men would support her in office or not.

Some of the women also urge that Mrs. Hutton has influence and wealth which make her a suitable candidate for the commissionership.

It is rumored that supporters of Mrs. Hutton are only waiting to learn for a certainty whether or not she will become a candidate before launching a vigorous campaign in her behalf.

Mrs. Hutton was one of the foremost in the campaign for esual suffrage in Washington. She is a member of the Woman's Non-Partisan League and the Woman's Club and it is believed that one of these will vigorously back Mrs. Hutton but it has not been ascertained which one.

COUNCIL HOLDS

IMPORTANT MEETING

At a meeting of the City Council last night a petition signed by a large number of tax payers on Twelfth street to have the council order the Frisco and O. C. Rys. to place an arc light at the crossings on 12th was presented. The petition was accepted and the railway companies will be ordered to put in the light. This light at those crossings is badly needed to prevent accidents befalling public travel when there is necessity for crossing the roads on 12th at night.

An ordinance aimed at certain exhibitions and moving picture shows was passed with the emergency. It makes it unlawful for any person or persons to exhibit themselves in a prize fight—glove contest, wrestling match, or the same to be shown in moving pictures. Train and bank robbery scenes in the moving picture shows are also put under the ban.

Councilman Grigsby wanted to amend the ordinance to prevent the displaying what he termed indecent postal cards at the post office and in other public places.

The amendment lost because the council did not feel that it would be very easy to distinguish between the decent and indecent post cards.

The city engineer filed his weather report, and the seventh estimate on the work done on the paving by the Shelby Downard Co. and, also filed a report of the engineering fees due himself.

The matter of selecting and buying a set of account books and installing a system of book-keeping for the city was not acted upon, because of a bill pending in legislature to unify the system of keeping books for all the cities in the state.

W. G. Goodwin of Kansas City offered to submit a proposition to contract for the engineering of the Byrd's Mill project.

Don Tolbert and Alexand Potter thought their representative Atty. Thos. P. Holt wanted to submit a proposition on the same matter.

The council received no propositions on the engineering of the project last night but will probably do so before long.

GORE ADDRESSES THE LEGISLATURE

FAVORS RECIPROCITY, URGES PUBLIC ECONOMY—OTHER
DOINGS AT CAPITOL.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Feb. 6.—United States Senator Gore delivered an address before the Oklahoma legislature in joint session this afternoon, in which he stated he was for the tariff board, or commission, as provided for in a pending bill before congress, providing it was amended. He believed the board should be bipartisan, appointed by the president, and confirmed by the senate, but did not think the president should be given power to remove the appointees at his pleasure, as this is too great draft, he said, to impose upon human nature. He would have the board figure the cost between producing articles in this and other countries, then graduate the tariff, and if done in good faith, he said, it would show that any articles of commerce protected by the tariff wall could be as cheaply produced here as elsewhere.

Favor of Reciprocity.

"And then I desire to know," said the senator, "what the protectionists propose to do about it." He favored reciprocity and he was not responsible, he said, because of discrimination against a certain class of commodities. It would make wider the United States markets and all the more extend our national and individual prosperity.

He declared himself in favor of direct election of United States Senators, saying that about all the opposition left was among the senators themselves. The idea would not be framed into a law at this time, but the time was coming, he said, when it would prevail. Democratic success in 1912 was predicted by the senator, but he did not venture to name his preference of the man to lead the ticket.

"There is such a wilderness of presidential timber to select from," he said, "and it is not who we should nominate, but who we should not nominate; it is not who will win, but who is worthy to win. I am interested more in the type than the man."

Referring to the resolution passed by the house a few days ago in which the Senator's course was approved as to certain Indian matters and legislation, he expressed his thanks, but he referred neither to the congressional investigation of last summer nor the incidents leading up to it, other than by implication.

"A good name and conscience is the greatest treasure a public or private man can lay up for himself," said the senator.

Urges Public Economy.

He urged economy in public matters, declared himself in favor of good roads, saying that oil county seats should be connected, but warned against evying a too great tax at the outset. He advocated a system of state prizes to farmers who would produce the largest crops on twenty acres, and to boys who would do the best with corn on one acre. Senator Gore was introduced to the joint session by Speaker Durant.

Twelve Bills Passed.

The house passed twelve bill on roll call, among them being that by Mr. Moore of Coal county, authorizing a state reward of $50 for convictions for dynamiting fish.

By Messrs. Barrett and Akin: Providing for attendance of schools in another district.

By Mr. Jones: Providing for education of indigent cripples, crippled and deformed persons at state expense.

By Mr. Steen: For paying actual expenses of district judges when holding court in other than the county their residence (emergency clause defeated.)

By Mr. Moss: Providing for making counties liable for all fees of Constables and Justices of the Peace in liquor cases.

By Mr. Teehee: Authorizing the commissioner of charity and corrections to appear as next friend for minors who were without parents.

New Bills in House.

New bills in the house were: Making Stratford and Lindsay court towns in Garvin county.

By Mr. Clark (of Atoka): Requiring that publishers of newspapers and periodicals carry at the head of editorial columns each month a sworn circulation statement.

By Messrs. Deford, Rose and Blackburn (republican): General election law.

The senate engrossed the bill by Senators Thomas and Franklin appropriating $304,795 for new buildings for the district agricultural schools. It was opposed by Senators Stewart, Hatchett and Horton. Senator Hatchett referred to the governor's message of a few days ago, in which the condition of the public buildings funds was shown, and he told the senate that if it wanted to preserve the state's credit it was time to call a halt. Senator Horton stated that the real farmer was in favor of appropriating money for the benefit of consolidated rural school in place of adding more buildings to the higher educational institutions, unless there was a pressing need for them.

Senate Adopts Memorial.

The senate adopted a memorial to congress offered by Senator Horton asking that a federal constitutional convention be called to submit an amendment that would make polygamy illegal, which was now the law of twenty-seven states.

A resolution was offered by Senator Coffey memorializing congress to permit the state to dispose of the proceeds of Section 33 in Greer county as the state elects.

A new senate bill was offered by Mr. Barefoot defining bank burglary and fixing the penalty at twenty to fifty years in the penitentiary.

A joint resolution was offered by Mr. Franklin providing for submission of an amendment to the constitution at the primary election in 1912 declaring that no property qualification other than that fixed by the constitution shall ever be imposed as a prerequisite for registering or voting, and that all other qualifications imposed by the legislature or the people shall conform to the United States constitutions and amendments thereto.

Congress Is Memorialized.

Both houses passed a resolution memorializing congress to provide for sale of the segregated coal and asphalt lands of the Choctaw and Chickasha tribes.

A house committee reported unfavorably upon the Wilbur bill proposing a $50 county tax against peddlers.

Favorable reports were received on the Durant bill regulating architects and the Goulding fire marshal bill from the senate.

TO ADVERTISE ENOUGH

IS NOT ALWAYS POSSIBLE--BUT SOME PROGRESS IN THAT DIRECTION MAY BE MADE!

"Enough" advertising would give your business an immediate "jump"—give it an impulse forward which nothing could check.

If, therefore, you COULD advertise "enough," your prosperity-problem would be quickly solved.

What you CAN DO NOW is to reach out in the direction of adequacy in your advertising—"sacrifice" other things, in your desire to keep pace with the best and the biggest advertisers in your line.

If you make "other things" pay for the advertising up to the point of partial adequacy, after that the advertising will pay for the other things—for ALL of the other things.
